

ARKANSAS ASSOCIATION OF CRIMINAL DEFENSE LAWYERS

PRESENTS:

“Everything You Need to Know About DWI’s - The Nuts & Bolts”

By John Collins

John Collins started his career as a police officer where he served as a field training officer, patrolman, investigator, and instructor of an alcohol education program. John went on to become a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney in Garland County. Mr. Collins has conducted several courses dealing with Arkansas DWI/DUI offenses and has been a guest speaker for Arkansas law enforcement training sessions on topics related to DWI/DUI. Mr. Collins sat as a Special Judge in the numerous Arkansas District Courts. Mr. Collins is a general member and State Delegate of the National College for DUI Defense, Inc., a Founding Member and State Ambassador of the DUI Defense Lawyers Association, a member of the Arkansas Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, Inns of Court, and the American Chemical Society. John was voted Best of the Best Attorneys in Hempstead County in 2010, has received the Client Distinction Award, and been named by Super Lawyers as a Rising Star, has been named as a Super Lawyer by Memphis Magazine, a Top Attorney by the Legal Network, has been ranked as a suburb attorney by AVVO.com with a 10 out of 10 rating and, most recently, is the published author of the DWI Book for the State of Arkansas.
